Freddy Welsh has taken in more than $60,000 since he copped the lightweight title from Willie Ritchie over in Lunnon last July. That's at the rate of over $8,000 per month, which is pretty fair pay for a fighter even though he be a chump.

Freddy has made between $5,000 and $10,000 on the stage and $54,500 on his fights.

Approximately fifteen dozen quait were trapped last year in the Sair River Valley and taken north to the valley of the Little Colorado, where they were liberated. Before turning the birds loose, Mr. Gardner visited all the schools in the valley, showed the birds to the pupils, and enlisted their nterest and protection for the quail. The birds, it is stated, stood the winter rnows in good shape, and there are now many nests along the Little Colorado, more customers than you can.
